THE LATEST IN (OUR) MISSIONS

We are thankful for all the children that God brought to the Bible club we held in our apartment building. All week long, we invited kids to join us for Bible stories, songs and games. Unfortunately, most come from families that don't have it all together, and gospel truths (Jesus, the cross, resurrection, sin, etc.) are totally foreign to them. However, during the stories, they were all-ears and heartily participated in the activities.

All the way to Nice and back, God protected our traveling. We replaced a pastor and his family for two weeks, filling in for all the studies and services. Of all places to help out in during the summer, Nice is certainly not the worst, so we made the most of it. Simeon would have been all right with staying at the beach the whole time. All in all, it was a beneficial time, for us as well as for the church in Nice.

All I want for Christmas is a playmate -- if such were the wish of Simeon, and if he could express it, he would be well on his way to seeing it answered. Rebecca enters her 6th month of pregnancy, and so far, all is well. It might come as a belated Christmas present, but not by all that much.

We also commit to your prayers all of our endeavors that start up in the fall:

- The Bible training program will continue into its second year. Professors, students, churches, schedules, material: may God bring it all together for another fruitful year.
- During the missionary conference that takes place in early October, may God increase our commitment to his work all over the world. It is all-important for the French church, typically on the receiving end of missions, to turn their sights towards going and sending. We rejoice to see the blessing of God on the Toulouse church for all their efforts and sacrifice towards this end.
- The need for a teaching time, probably a 'Sunday school hour', for parents, teenagers and all who are interested.
- All that and then some...

With all our gratitude for all your support,

Sam and Rebecca
